CATEGORIES

Refer to the section descriptions (details on a separate sheet) for eligibility and design guidance.

Closing date for entries is 31 July 2024, garments to be received by 11 August 2024.

- Streetwear A versatile daytime outfit with strong directional modern look.
- Avant-garde A garment that delights in the unconventional and unexpected.
- Machine-Crafted - Designs created using machinery to knit, weave or sew. The garment is created with the use of the machine, not by hand crafting.
- Special Occasion A glamorous outfit that speaks confidence and quality and takes presentation to higher levels of sophistication.
- Collections Three complete cohesive looks with a common design theme.
- Hand-crafted Hand-knitted, crocheted, felted, woven, needlepoint: innovative use of any of these hand-crafted techniques. No machine knits.
- Accessories Design and hand-crafted shoes, jewellery, scarves, capes, wraps or headwear.
- Repurposed Garments designed and created using recycled or repurposed wool
- Toi Tu ki Uruuruwhenua Drawing inspiration from culture across Aotearoa New Zealand including Te Ao Māori, that may involve traditional handcraft techniques and / or symbolism.
- Pink Wool Plaster Challenge create something unusual with the use of donated pink wool plasters.

INSTRUCTIONS

Your garment entry code will be emailed on receipt of entry form A.

Ensure your name and number of entries added to 'Reference' when making payment.

Attach form B with your entry - checklist must be completed to ensure your entry is complete.

Form C - 'Component List' must be filled in with everything in the package not just the garments or entry will not be accepted.

All items in the package must be labelled with your entry code. Sticky tape is no longer acceptable except when attaching to hard surface ie shoes/accessories. Tape peels off the garments during wear.

Please download designer pack on website where you will find information on sizing, rules and regulations and full category and award information.

If not collecting your entry ensure to add a return postage form and suitable packaging which you can buy via www.nzpost.co.nz - send a parcel.
